

“Wonder” assignment: All answers need to be in complete sentences with appropriate punctuation. Answer each of the following questions on a Word Document, Times New Roman, font Size 12, double spaced. Make sure you use the proper heading: First line – full name; Second line - full date; Third line – ELA – Reading. Skip a line and center name of story with Author. There are three choices to emphasize your title: underline, italics or quotations.

Part 1: Before you read “Wonder”, Part 1.

1. What do you think of the line, “Don’t judge a boy by his face”?
 2. Does this statement make you want to read this novel? Why or why not?

Part 2: After you have finished reading “Wonder”, answer each of the following questions in three to four complete sentences. Be prepared to discuss the questions/answers during the first week of classes.

1. Throughout “Wonder”, Auggie describes the way that many people react to seeing his face for the first time.
 - a. Have you ever been in a situation where you have responded like this to seeing someone different?
 - b. Having read “Wonder”, how do you feel about this now?
 2. Auggie’s face is not fully described until later on in the story, in Via’s chapter ‘August: Through the Peephole’.
 - a. How close was this description to your own mental picture of Auggie?
 - b. Did you have a picture of his face in your mind while reading the book?
 - c. Did this description alter that picture?
 - d. Using 1Samuel 16:7, how does God see his creation?

Part 3: Think about a message that you would choose to act on as your own personal precept. You must create your own personal precept; you can borrow a quotation, song lyric, poem verse, etc. from someone else as long as you give the author credit for their work or create one of your own. (Although you may borrow an idea or quotation from another source, you may not use one of the precepts included in the novel).

Once you have created your own precept, design a flyer which incorporates:

1. An illustration (hand-drawn, collaged, computer-generated etc.)
2. Your personal precept, and
3. Your name on the bottom right hand corner of the post card.

Be prepared to discuss the novel and complete additional tasks, activities and assessments upon returning to class.
